

BENJAMIN UBERTI, DVM, MSc, Dip ACVIM

Senior clinician, Equine Internal Medicine, Equine Veterinary Medical Center, Al Shaqab, Qatar Foundation, Doha, Qatar. Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine (2010); Masters of Science, Purdue University, Indiana, USA (2009); Residency in Large Animal Internal Medicine, Purdue University, Indiana, USA (2006-2009); Internship in Equine Emergency and Critical Care, The Ohio State University, USA (2005); Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, Universidad de Buenos Aires, Argentina (1998-2005). Assistant Professor, Institute of Veterinary Clinical Sciences, School of Veterinary Sciences, Universidad Austral de Chile, Valdivia, Chile. Head of the equine medicine & surgery section (2014-2022); Resident, Large Animal Internal Medicine, Purdue University, USA (2006-2009); Intern, Equine Emergency and Critical Care, The Ohio State University, USA (2005). Private practice: 03/2023 – present: Senior Clinician, Internal Medicine, Equine Veterinary Medical Center (EVMC), Al Shaqab, Qatar Foundation, Doha, Qatar; 2010 – 2014: Partner, Verna-Uberti Veterinarios. Equine specialty service, San Isidro Thoroughbred Racetrack, Buenos Aires, Argentina; 2009 – 2017: Scientific consultant, AU Medical Translations. Buenos Aires, Argentina; 2012 – 2014: General management, Haras Los Monteros. Hasenkamp, Entre Ríos, Argentina. Racing Quarter Horse breeding and training; 2009 – 2010: Clinical management, Doña Pilar Equine Reproduction Ctr, Buenos Aires, Argentina; 2008 – 2014: External consultancy, Finca Las Ceibas, Salta, Argentina. Beef livestock farming; 2006: Technical assessment, Centro Diagnóstico Veterinario S.A., Buenos Aires, Argentina.; 2005: Intern, Haras La Biznaga, Buenos Aires, Argentina. Thoroughbred breeding and training. Publications [34], books and proceedings [2], book chapters [5], student theses [19], conferences (selected) [28], software development <https://australequinos.glideapp.io/>, student mentorship [14].